

Sat 19th June
Facebook Live Stream

Virtual Music Night

8.00-8.20pm

Ran and Kelly

Local accomplished duo - guitar, drums and voice. They offer lyrical renditions of well-known contemporary songs, with exquisite harmonies. What's not to enjoy!

8.25-8.45pm

Ewan Bleach

Ewan is an internationally recognised jazz clarinettist, saxophonist, pianist and singer specialising in old-style jazz. He runs regular jazz nights in London and collaborates with many original music project in a variety of styles.

8.50-9.10pm

Ben Avison

Acoustic folk singer, Ben, originally from the Yorkshire Dales, now based in Oxford has carefully honed the craft of song writing, telling a story in every song.

9.15-9.35pm

James Hockley

Having woke up on his 25th birthday lying on the sofa in the studio, after a night out with a band I was recording an album with, he thought "I'm doing alright at this, I'll keep going!". Since then James has been signed to Ministry of Sound working with DJs and Producers such as Tall Paul, Brandon Block and Chicane. More recent collaborations have seen him writing music for picture, utilising all the electronic/orchestral skills he has learnt on his journey. Don't sit back and relax - stand up and allow your soul to be moved! Sound, lights, action!