

Trip to Bristol Cathedral on Saturday, 29th October, 2022

Bristol is a good city to start my Cathedral trips again. Some of you may know Bristol better than I do with its Museums, (www.bristolmuseums.org.uk), Clifton Suspension Bridge and docks with SS Great Britain (www.ssgreatbritain.org). Once we are at Bristol, the day is yours to do and see whatever you wish. Please remember the cathedral closes at 3.30 for evensong and will not open again that day. (www.bristol-cathedral.co.uk)

I plan to leave Bristol at 5.00 pm so we should be back at Oxford about 7.00 pm.

There is no entry fee to the cathedral, but they do take donations. The cost of the trip is £30.00 per person, to cover the cost of the coach and a tip for the driver.

Please make cheques to 'Mr. W. Clarke' or you can pay by cash or direct to St Peter's Wolvercote bank account.
