Guided Antwerp City Walking Tour

Explore the historical centre in the company of our knowledgeable and passionate guides. We'll take you on a fascinating trip through Antwerp's past and present, including the astonishing works of Rubens, the city's majestic architecture, its culinary diversity and its fashion district.

Horta Museum

Discover the elegance of Art Nouveau at the Horta Museum, the former home and studio of architect Victor Horta. This UNESCO-listed site is a masterpiece of flowing lines, natural light, and exquisite craftsmanship. From swirling staircases to stained glass skylights, every detail showcases Horta's visionary design and timeless influence on modern architecture.

Van Buuren Museum

An eclectic treasure trove of art and design, the Van Buuren Museum invites you into the stylish 1920s residence of banker David Van Buuren. Admire a stunning collection of fine art—from Bruegel to Dutch masters—set against original Art Deco interiors. Don't miss the enchanting gardens, including a romantic labyrinth and a "Garden of Hearts," perfect for a serene stroll.

Adagio Apart Hotel Antwerp City

The Aparthotel Adagio Antwerpen is situated in Zurenborg, one of Antwerps most beautiful districts due to the Belle Epoque buildings. The historic city centre with numerous sights, the main station as well as bus, tram and metro stops are within comfortable walking distance.
